

OTIS B. MORSE TALKS AT DEM MEET FRIDAY

The importance of registration was stressed by Otis B. Morse, chairman of the state Democratic Committee, at a meeting of the Adams County Democratic Committee Friday evening in the courthouse.

Morse stressed that "teamwork is needed for registration in order to win elections" and urged all persons to make an intensive campaign for registrations before the March 26 deadline.

Fred G. Klunk, chairman of the county committee, who was in charge of the meeting, announced that the party will conduct a school for all committeemen in the county before the primary election. Afterwards, Klunk said, a school will be held again for the newly elected committeemen and all other interested persons.

250 AT MEETING

Klunk told the 250 persons who attended that Miss Jean Miller, Mrs. Marie Harbaugh, Emory Hammer, Dr. Chester Jarvis and himself had attended a precinct school last Saturday at Bedford.

It was announced that the Young Democratic Club will sponsor a dinner May 3 at Banker's Restaurant, Littlestown. Tickets are $5 per person and the speaker will be Steven McCann, candidate for lieutenant governor.

Klunk announced that a school for election board officials will be conducted sometime before the primary for officials of both parties. The school will be jointly sponsored by the Republican Committee.

Klunk also said that plans are being made to have traveling registrars available throughout the county again this year.

Robert Kane, Morse's administrative assistant, spoke briefly.

COURT APPEAL BY CHURCHES BEING DROPPED

The appeal of a number of churches in the estate of Charles A. Erb, late of Reading Twp., will be withdrawn, Atty. Donald G. Oyster said Friday.

Argument in the case was scheduled for court Monday, but Atty. Oyster said the representatives of the churches which had brought the appeal had decided to withdraw the action. He said the decision was based on belief of church officials of the two churches remaining as plaintiffs that, because of the considerable expense involved, funds given the churches for church purposes should not be used for litigation.

The case involved the possibility of two wills made by Mr. Erb prior to his death. One will allegedly left the approximately $10,000 estate to various churches. The will which was entered for probate after his death by his executor, Assemblyman Francis Worley, did not list the churches as heirs.

Papers filed originally in the case listed as complainants Mt. Olivet Evangelical and Reformed, Latimore Twp.; Emmanuel Reformed Church, Hampton; St. John's Lutheran, Hampton; Bermudian Lutheran, Latimore Twp.; Mt. Victory EUB, S. Middletown Twp.; Cumberland County, and Bermudian Reformed Church. In two instances the papers filed were copies of actions taken by church councils as attested by the secretary. In others a single signature was signed for the church.

Rusk Flies To Geneva Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk took off for Geneva today, calling on the Soviets to join in a real effort to stem the arms race and reduce cold war tensions.

Rusk, heading for a 17-nation disarmament conference, told newsmen, "We will do everything that we can on our side to help turn down the arms race and reduce present tensions."

"If all the rest who are coming to Geneva will approach it in that spirit we will make some real headway," Rusk said.

Rusk, heading a 33-man delegation, took off from Andrews Air Force Base aboard a military jet liner. Because of poor weather, the plane was routed through Goose Bay, Labrador, instead of undertaking a direct course to Geneva.

Bombs Burst In Paris And Algiers; 44 Persons Lose Lives In 55 New Attacks

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

ALGIERS (AP) — Right-wing terrorists struck in Paris and Algiers today, but Algerian peace talks moved steadily toward an accord for a cease-fire.

A bomb planted in a parked car in the Paris suburb of Issy les Moulineaux blew up with tremendous force during the morning rush hour, killing two policemen and a postal employee and wounding 50 other persons. Authorities blamed the explosion on the rightist European Secret Army Organization, which is opposed to Algerian independence.

44 ARE KILLED

The booby-trapped car was parked in front of a building where a leftist rally was scheduled later in the day. The explosion echoed through the heart of the French capital at a time when the city's security forces were being reinforced in expectation of massive secret army retaliation to a cease-fire announcement.

The tempo of terrorism picked up in Algeria Friday after two relatively quiet days. Forty-four persons were killed and 31 wounded in 55 separate attacks.

But French and Algerian negotiators began weekend sessions at Evian, France, showing no signs that the stepped up violence was impeding progress toward an agreement on ending the seven and a half year Algerian rebellion and eventual independence for the territory.

In Algeria, two separate incidents further alienated the French army from both the European settlers and the Algerian Moslems.

KILL 16 MOSLEMS

French police and troops pursuing Moslem terrorists in Oran killed 16 Moslems, four of them women.

Police said they were investigating a fire at a Moslem store when they were fired upon by Moslem terrorists. Police fired back, killing three Moslems. Doz

100 WOMEN AT WORLD DAY OF PRAYER HERE

In spite of the inclement weather more than 100 women attended the World Day of Prayer service sponsored by the Gettysburg Council of Church Women held at the Presbyterian Church from 1:30 to 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Robert A. MacAskill in opening the program said: "At this moment we join spirits with millions of Christians around the earth. Dress, language, place of worship, climate, conditions may differ, but we are one in thought of the magnitude of God's love for the whole world." She explained that it was "one of God's miracles that He should have taken the idea which one busy woman back in 1887 had for a day of prayer in her own denomination, in her own country, and made of it the World Day of Prayer which has spanned continents, cultures, nations, races right around the globe until today more than 145 countries join in this spiritual fellowship." The service of worship this year was prepared by the women of Uruguay.

MIXED CHOIR SINGS

Mrs. William Coleman, president of the council, read the scriptures and Mrs. Paul L. Reaver, program chairman, led the responsive readings. Mrs. M. Scott Moorhead presided at the organ and a choir of women's voices from a number of churches led the singing. "Voices" from the congregation were Miss Ruth McIlmny, Mrs. Eleanor Jones and Mrs. Donald Treese.

Edward Palmer, a student at the seminary, sang "Jesus the Very Thought of Thee" by Thimman and Mrs. Harold Glad sang "Come Ye Blessed" by Scott.

Canon Clifton Best, York, conducted three 20-minute periods of meditation on prayer. He asked "Did you ever think what your heritage is as a child of God? A Christian is the creator of circumstances rather than the victim of them. It is not God's will that you suffer but you must

MEMORIAL TO DR. STAHLEY IS DEDICATED

The former Phi Kappa Psi house, remodeled into a classroom-office building last summer, has been named the George Diehl Stahley building in honor of a former professor and distinguished alumnus of Gettysburg College.

A dedication ceremony was held in front of the building today at noon with John W. Shainline, dean of students, presiding. Horace G. Ports, secretary of the board of trustees, performed the official act of dedication. Mr. Ports said: "I would like to use this opportunity to review a few facts about Dr. Stahley and his career. He graduated from Gettysburg College in 1871 and continued his medical training at the University of Pennsylvania. He received his degree of Doctor of Medicine in 1875 and was, at nearly the same time, awarded a master's degree by Gettysburg College.

"Dr. Stahley served as an assistant physician at the state hospital at Harrisburg for 12 years. The following two years he practiced in his hometown of Easton, Pa., as a specialist in nervous diseases.

"In 1889 Dr. Stahley was named to fill the newly created chair of physical culture and hygiene at Gettysburg College. Eight years later, he was made Graf professor of biology. He served as a member of the board for the theological seminary here and for Irving College, in addition to serving as a trustee of Gettysburg College.

"Dr. Stahley was awarded the first of the coveted alumni plaques for distinguished service by the alumni association in 1935. He was a member of the faculty of Gettysburg College for 50 years and at the age of 89 was one of its oldest alumni.

"In behalf of the board of trustees and the president of Gettysburg College, I hereby officially dedicate this building to be named the George Diehl Stahley building."

Storm-Battered Seaboard Residents Start Cleanup Of Mountainous Wreckage

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The devastated Eastern Seaboard fought to clear a monumental mass of debris today as the worst week of winter storms in its history faded under clearing skies. Sufferers in five states had President Kennedy's promise of federal disaster relief.

A storm that dropped seven inches of snow on parts of Georgia dwindled in intensity as it plodded northward Friday night and was expected to disappear during the day. It carried rain and light snow as far north as southern New England.

Tides running at a foot above normal slowed the ebb and left flooded coastal lowlands and hampered cleanup operations from Miami Beach to southern New England.

But this latest assault of the dying winter weather was small compared to the storm that began Tuesday and ravaged the coast for three days, leaving 38 known

It will mark the first time that a supreme governor of the lodge has spoken at an initiation ceremony held by the local lodge. The Danville Moose lodge degree team will be in charge of the ceremony exemplifying the ideals of the Moose for more than 100 new members of the Gettysburg lodge and another 100 newly enrolled members from nearby Moose lodges who are scheduled to be here for the program.

It is also anticipated that J. Jack Stoehr, regional director of the Moose, and Paul P. Schmitz, director general of the Moose, will be present for the initiation. Further plans for the program will be outlined at next Thursday evening's meeting of the local lodge. Governor Maurice Shindler-decker has announced.

Scheduled also to be completed for the March 29 program is the enlargement of the lobby at the Moose home here and removing of the business office to what has been the stag bar section. The stag bar will move to new quarters in an area now tenanted by part of the Service Supply store.

Supreme Governor Byrd became a member of the Baltimore Moose lodge in 1935, later established, and is a past governor of the College Park, Md., lodge. He is a past president of the Maryland State Moose Association and has been a member of the Mooseheart board of governors.

PAIR ADMITS THEY CAUSED $45,000 FIRE DURING THEFT

Two Aspers R. 1 young men are in the Adams County jail today charged with a burglary which allegedly caused $45,000 damage.

State Police said Otis Alvin Snook, 18, and Richard Junior Speelman, 21, both of Aspers R. 1, Friday entered pleas of guilty before Justice of the Peace Anna Thompson, to burglary of gasoline from the barn of Isaac N. Ripley, Aspers R. 1, on February 16 at 10:10 o'clock, a burglary which police said resulted in the destruction of the barn at the Ripley farm plus machinery and equipment.

Police said today Snook and Speelman admitted they were attempting to steal gasoline from a sprayer in the barn when they accidentally caused a fire. The gasoline-fueled blaze quickly spread throughout the barn.

CAUSE WAS MYSTERY

At the time of the fire, Aspers Fire Chief Charles Gulden told reporters that he was at a loss to explain how a fire started in the barn located between Aspers and Centre Mills. There was no electricity in the barn, the fire chief noted.

Police said Speelman and Snook set the time their theft turned into a fire at 10:10 on the night of February 16. Firemen who arrived at about 10:20 o'clock said the structure was a mass of flames and they could only prevent spread of the blaze to other structures. Bendersville and Biglerville firemen assisted Aspers firemen in the prevention of the spread of the fire.

At the time of the fire the Aspers fire chief made a $35,000 estimate of loss, including the barn, wagons, speed sprayer, 8,000 apple crates, side rake, drill, an automobile, grain and other articles stored in the barn.

Further investigation apparently disclosed a greater loss because state police in their report gave a loss estimate of $45,000.

CORNETIST TO BE GUEST AT BAND CONCERT

Smith, president of his own music publishing firm, known as Bandland, Inc., is a native of New York and was a child music prodigy. At 14 he wrote his first march in honor of the New York Military Academy where he was a scholarship student.

CONDUCTS BAND

At 20 he played first trumpet with the Detroit Symphony and Ford Sunday Evening Hour. He also served as a principal soloist with the Goldman Band in New York. Following 3½ years in the Navy during World War II, he returned to Detroit to form his own concert band and for 14 years has been conductor of the Belle Isle Concert Band. Recently he was elected to conduct the Scandinavian Symphony Orchestra of Detroit.

The concert March 24 at Biglerville High School auditorium will open with a concert by the Junior High Band, followed by a concert by the Senior High School Band. Featured on the program will be the first movement of Schubert's Symphony in B Minor, No. 8, the "Unfinished Symphony."

5TH MARYLAND YOUTH DIES AFTER CRASH

The fifth Maryland youth involved in the auto-truck accident in Hanover early Friday morning has died.

York County authorities said Clarence Summers, 20, Westminster, who had been admitted to the Hanover Hospital suffering from a possible skull fracture and internal injuries following the accident in Penn Twp., died at noon Friday, an hour after the fourth victim, Robert Powell, 20, also of Westminster, died.

Two of the occupants of the car which smashed into a truck at the intersection of Grandview Rd. and the Baltimore Highway 1 1/2 miles south of Hanover at 2:30 a.m. Friday were dead at the scene. They were Gerald Edward Brown, 21, Westminster, and Samuel Edward Butler Jr., 21, Union Bridge. Donald Charles Foreman, 19, Ijamsville, Md., brother of the owner of the car, died enroute to the hospital from the scene. All were Negroes.

DECIDE ON DRIVER

Charles T. Baker, 29, Spring Grove R. 3, driver of the truck, suffered chest and left ankle injuries.

Damage to the tractor-trailer truck owned by Harold M. Kelly, New Oxford R. 1, was estimated at $2,000. The flat bed tractor was hauling a cargo of concrete blocks and bricks. The 1960 model car was demolished. The truck, before coming to a halt, struck and damaged a mail box, an ornamental bush and a tree at the property of A. K. Hoff, 1335 Baltimore St., Hanover.

Penn Twp. police said today they had determined that Butler was the driver of the car, based on photographs taken before the men were removed. Butler, they said, had Donald Foreman's driver's license in his possession. Butler also had a loaded revolver on his person from which three bullets had been fired, but police said they could not link the gun with any other incidents.

2 BIRD PESTS GET ATTENTION

State and national resources are being brought to bear on the problem of eradicating blackbirds and starlings because of the damage they do to growing crops.

Last month the Adams County Fruitgrowers at their annual meeting in Biglerville adopted a resolution calling on the state to find ways to eliminate the two breeds of birds because of the "huge amount of damage" they do to growing crops and fruit.

They sent a copy of the resolution to Assemblyman Francis Worley asking his efforts to get the state Game Commission to act on the problem. A telephone call by Mr. Worley to the state Game Commission executive director brought the information that blackbirds are migratory birds and therefore are under federal jurisdiction. A Hanover office of the federal government is experimenting on ways of getting rid of blackbirds.

The same state official said starlings are a state problem and "tests are being made by state workers" to find ways to lick the starling nuisance. Mr. Worley said he urged renewed action on both fronts.

World-Famous Violinist Walks Out On Orchestra Over Artistic Opinion

PITTSBURGH (AP) — World-famous violinist Nathan Milstein walked out on the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra a few hours before a scheduled concert Friday night, after an artistic disagreement with conductor William Steinberg.

Violinist Berl Senofsky flew in from New York and replaced Milstein as soloist in the Beethoven violin concerto, Milstein took a train back to New York.

A symphony spokesman said Milstein's walkout came after a difference of opinion on the interpretation of the work developed during rehearsal.

Milstein, he said, "repeatedly made comments directly to various players in the orchestra, thereby invading an area which is the conductor's sole prerogative."

REHEARSAL HALTED

"The rehearsal came to an abrupt halt in the middle of the third movement," the spokesman said. "At this point there was a quiet exchange of words between Milstein and Steinberg, who is world famous for his sympathetic collaboration and accompaniment of solo artists. Following this exchange, Milstein walked off the stage and the rehearsal proceeded to other matters."

The spokesman said "It was also learned that a similar episode had recently taken place in Europe when Milstein walked out on a rehearsal of the Beethoven concerto."

But Friday's quarrel was surprising, he said, because Milstein and Steinberg had recorded this concerto together several years ago. Last year Milstein cancelled an appearance with the Pittsburgh Symphony when he learned that Steinberg, on leave of absence, would not be conducting.

"DIDN'T AGREE"

Before leaving here Milstein told newsmen:

"There was no accord on the interpretation of the concerto. We didn't agree on the tempo and, let's say, how to do certain things. I wanted the orchestra to play the concerto differently. So we decided not to hold the concert. It wouldn't be a good idea to have a concert under these conditions. With two different spirits in the performance it wouldn't be good."

He said he still has the highest regard for Steinberg, and added, "But I have regard for my opinion, too. Why not?"

Steinberg refused to comment on the incident.

Violinist Senofsky, called in at six-thirty notice, performed the Beethoven concerto in place of Milstein and received a tremendous ovation from the audience.

The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's music critic Donald Stenseth described his performance as "brilliant."

Gettysburg Schools Report

CHEMISTRY 1962

Contrary to many beliefs the course of chemistry is basically the same as it was 10-15 years ago.

Today, 103 elements are studied instead of 92. Practical application of the concepts in chemistry is stressed rather than rote memory of facts as seemed to be the case some time ago. Today, practice in doing mathematical problems involving a thorough understanding of all the sciences and mathematical courses taken prior to chemistry is required. These problems are of the type in which facts presented in class and in the text must be interpreted and applied to the context of the problems. There is still some memorization but it is kept at a minimum, since memorized facts are not always facts which are understood.

Neither the Chem Study Approach, nor the Chemical Bond Approach has been taught as such in chemistry but some of the basic ideas have been used and a full conversion to one or the other is being seriously considered.

The study of chemistry in the class is inherently tied in with the laboratory work. In the beginning, a premium is placed on laboratory procedure, making sure small techniques are learned the correct way the first time. In time the experiments become more difficult requiring a more direct application of classwork to the laboratory work. The students learn to do simple gravimetric determinations; also they learn to use and care for an analytical balance.

Procedures in titration and electrolysis are observed by all and those who feel they have the time are allowed to strike out on their own on the above. Near the end of the year the students are engaged in a procedure of identifying compounds by the use of a simple qualitative scheme.

Thus basically the chemistry course has not changed tremendously in 10-15 years, but many new and interesting things have been added to the chemistry curriculum.

LAU IS ELECTED AT EAST BERLIN

A new president was elected and a budget and tax ordinances were adopted at a meeting of the East Berlin borough council Thursday evening in the borough office. The meeting had been postponed from Tuesday.

Robert E. Lau was elected president of council and took the travel from Mayor John Phillips, who had been acting president since the first of the year. Lau had served a four-year term as councilman previously and was elected last year to his second term.

Council also appointed Charles Fahs to fill the four-year term of Richard Smyers.

A budget of $24,906 was adopted and the council set the tax millage for 1962 at 20 and imposed a $5 per capita tax, both for general borough purposes. The maximum millage allotted by state law is 20 mills.

Storm

York and Maryland, the American Red Cross set up a disaster relief headquarters at Wilmington, Del. A separate headquarters in Mantoe, N.C., handled that state.

New Jersey, which caught the full force of the storm, suffered damage estimated at $100 million or more and a loss of at least 12 lives. Several hundred New Jersey residents have taken refuge in temporary shelters.

Beach Haven, N.J., one of Long Beach Island's chief resort centers, was reported to have almost washed away, with 90 per cent of its homes either destroyed or badly damaged. More than 1,000 homes were reported to have disappeared along a 30-mile section of New Jersey's South Shore.

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Six small children took shelter from the rain beneath a large pine tree in a Melbourne schoolyard Friday. Lightning shattered the tree and sent it crashing down on the children. John Leslie Ferver, 7, was killed and the other five, aged 5 to 8, were injured. 112 lbyl Gail Taylor of Buckeye was mighty fond of his dog. The pooch wouldn't sleep anywhere but in the cab of his master's pickup truck.

When winter approached, Taylor bought an electric pad for the dog. Electricity is run by extension cord through a bedroom window to the seat of the vehicle.

Seek AWOL Marine In Youth's Death

MEDIA, Pa. (AP) — State police are seeking a Marine, reportedly absent without leave from Camp Lejeune, N. C., for questioning in the slaying of William Leake, 22, an Oklahoma City man, formerly of Media.

Leake's body was found in Middletown Township Friday. Police first considered the possibility he had been killed by a hit and run driver, but later said he was apparently killed and robbed.

State police said the Marine was seen with Leake Thursday night. Leake was apparently killed by a blow from a tire iron.

Pall Of Despair In East Germany Intensifies As Commies Apply Pressure

EDITOR'S NOTE—U.S. reporters can enter East Berlin but few get into East Germany, the surrounding area. An exception comes at the time of the Leipzig trade fair, where Western countries are represented. This account of life in East Germany is by a German-speaking Nebraskan who is a member of the Associated Press staff in West Germany.

By LOYAL GOULD

LEIPZIG, East Germany (AP) — The pall of despair has intensified in East Germany in the seven months since the Communists built their wall across Berlin to keep East Germans from fleeing to the West.

This reporter, permitted to visit East Germany for Leipzig's spring trade fair, found gray monotony and in some cases hopelessness. A dreary conformity showed through the atmosphere of festivity temporarily created during the fair.

A visiting Briton compared the material conditions with those of wartime England. But he said the people's spirit was a far cry from that of his countrymen.

FORSEE NO LUTEP

Leipzigers in conversations expressed fear that Walter Ulbricht, East Germany's top Communist, has entrenched his position in the last few months. They see little hope of a letup in the daily pressure to conform to his concepts of communism.

Ulbricht is regarded as a Stalinist whose repressive measures have not eased despite changes in some other Communist countries.

Here are three comments this reporter heard:

"We're getting more Russian than the Russians ever were."

"The work norms are boosted almost every three months and we have to work longer hours for less."

POLICE GET TOUGHER

"You either pretend support for the government—or else."

Police controls have tightened since Aug. 13 when the Berlin wall was started.

"The janitors in the apartment buildings aren't real janitors any more," a woman said. "They're spies put there to report anything out of the ordinary."

Visitors are carefully noted.

MRS. DELLA BUTT ABBOTTSTOWN — A surprise party was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Rodgers in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Shaberly who celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith, Falls Church, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and family, Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Curvin Smith and Miss Grace Smith, Thomasville; Mr. and Mrs. William Shaberly and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shaberly and family and Mrs. Sally Shaberly, East Berlin.

The French Academy once wrote a French grammar so complicated that schools refused to use it.

their names and times of arrival and departure jotted down in books kept in every apartment building.

SHUN CHURCH

Churches in East Germany are still visited, a woman in her 40s said, but mostly by people of her own age or older. A working mother of four, she commented, "It doesn't help the youngsters in school or in their later careers if they have been confirmed. They are held back and then made to look stupid in the eyes of their comrades."

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

TEN YEARS AGO

Heavy Rains Close 3 County Highways; Streams Overflow Banks; Many Cellars Flooded: Three Adams county highways were closed to traffic by high waters today, creeks ran over their banks, and hundreds of fields were turned into small lakes as a deluge of rain and electrical storms lashed the county.

In Gettysburg, numerous cellars were flooded, and storm sewers in some sections overflowed. A manhole cover was forced off on Fourth street.

At 11:30 today nearly four inches of rain had fallen since 7:30 o'clock Monday night. High winds blew during the night and early morning, and this morning thunder and lightning, the first since a January electrical storm, swept parts of the county.

Honor Hansons At Testimonial Here Thursday: The official Gettysburg college family thanked Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president, and Mrs. Hanson for their 25 years service to the college at a testimonial dinner, Thursday evening at Hotel Gettysburg. 176 persons attended the dinner.

Dr. W. E. Tilberg, dean of the college, who served as toastmaster, sounded the keynote when he stated "this is not a farewell dinner but a testimonial dinner."

Sweetheart To Be Chosen For Navy Concert: A "Sweetheart of the Navy" will be selected from among Adams county high school girls to "reign" at the Easter concert to be presented at the South Mountain fairgrounds April 9 by the U. S. Navy band.

At a meeting of the South Mountain Fair association Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Hughes, 419 Carlisle street, the association decided to have the students of each of the eight high schools in the county select a "Sweetheart."

College Choir Leaves Sunday On Spring Tour: The Gettysburg College Choir of 52 voices, under the direction of Prof. Parker B. Wagnild, will leave at noon Sunday on its annual spring tour. Eleven concerts will be given by the choir on its swing from Washington, D. C., through Maryland, Virginia, North and South Carolina and Georgia. The trip will be made in two chartered buses. Mrs. Wagnild will accompany her husband and members of the choir.

Miss M. Culp "Grateful" On 90th Birthday: "O my," said Myra Culp today, "the sewing will just have to wait until I get over this."

The "sewing" was work on some coats and dresses for various customers; the "this" was the celebration of her 90th birthday.

Still actively engaged as a seamstress at 90, Miss Culp is finding that there is no time to work this week, "I'm too busy reading cards and welcoming visitors."

Mrs. McIlhenny, Invalid For 2 Years, Expires: Mrs. Emma Jane (Cobean) McIlhenny, 81, widow of Hugh Meredith McIlhenny, died at 11:10 o'clock Thursday evening at her home, 430 Carlisle street. She had been an invalid since December 11, 1950, when she suffered a fall in which her left hip and left wrist were broken. Her condition became critical a week ago.

Dr. Harrison F. Harbach, Highland Park, will return this evening from Washington D. C., after completing a week's post-graduate course in obstetrics and gynecology at the George Washington university hospital.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress has been asked to authorize the coinage of 50-cent pieces commemorating the orbital space flight of Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr.

A bill to authorize the issuance of 500,000 such coins was introduced Thursday by Sen. Alan Bible, D-Nev., cosponsored by Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Today's Talk

HEART ETIQUETTE
In these Talks of mine I know, over the years, I have said much about the heart. The reason is that life centers about the heart. I like fine manners. To see a person who knows the proper thing to do under all circumstances is to look upon one well equipped for association with all types of human beings. The well-mannered person is at home everywhere — even among those who are not well trained or taught.

But I believe that too much emphasis can be placed upon ordinary physical etiquette with the heart showing its ill breeding. "Kind hearts are more than coronets." And a well-mannered heart always takes upon itself a touch of heaven.

I have known people who would become greatly disturbed over ill manners at a table, or at a gathering, but who would not hesitate to hurt another by a crude remark or an unkind reference.

Politeness is simply honesty. And to be honest is to answer to our most sincere impulses whether these impulses tell of the proper thing or not. Fine conduct is naturalness so shaped as to make people comfortable and happy. He or she uses the best etiquette who makes those near the least disturbed and at ease.

The fine-mannered heart doesn't hurt other hearts. We never become completely educated. But we grow more educated as we learn to inspire others through our own efforts to use every faculty at our command for the happiness of others. I miss those whom I love who have fine-mannered hearts, who live in me though they may be far separated.

Just Folks

LOST BEAUTY
A man compelled to walk a mile Brooded o'er business all the while; Head down, he trudged along the road And fretted 'neath his little load And God, Who saw him, straight began To try to cheer that troubled man.

With fleecy clouds He trimmed the sky, Hoping to catch the wanderer's eye.

A singing bird upon a tree For him poured out its melody; And at a window-pane a child Greeted him gleefully and smiled.

But through his self-established gloom He never saw the trees a-bloom; Above his head an eagle flew, About his feet wild blossoms grew, And everywhere were splendors set To make the man his care forget.

For him God threw His wonders out; Birds, beasts and men were all about And busy with their love or hate; But this man, coming to his gate Exclaimed in doleful tones and said: "Lord, what a dull, bleak walk I've had!"

POUND MEKONG RIVER DELTA

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Vietnamese fighter-bombers Friday battered the Mekong River delta while ground forces pushed through swamps near the South China Sea hunting guerrillas.

There were no immediate reports on the results of the air strikes carried out by B25 engine fighters equipped with rockets, machine guns and bombs.

The Viet Cong guerrillas continued over much of the southern third of the country, but no important new government operations other than the aerial attacks were announced today.

KILL 33 REDS
Military sources said Vietnamese forces killed 33 guerrillas and captured four in an operation Thursday supported by U.S. Army helicopters in southernmost An Xuyen Province.

Five U.S. helicopters were hit by small arms fire in the operation but all returned to their base without casualties.

U.S. Army mechanics worked to repair a helicopter forced down Thursday by engine trouble in Communist-infested delta territory while airlifting government troops. No American casualties were reported. Vietnamese troops stood guard around the copter.

7 FROM MOUNT TAKE PART IN BOOK PROGRAM

Mount Saint Mary's College, Emmitsburg, participated in the Book of the Month program sponsored by Morgan State College, Baltimore. Other schools participating include the University of Maryland, John Hopkins University, Bowie State Teachers College, Hood College and Saint Peter's College. Participants were selected by invitation of Martin D. Jenkins, president of Morgan State. Each institution sent a delegation of five to 10 students to take part in the panel discussions. The program sought to provide students and faculty with a common meeting ground for the consideration and discussion of ideas expressed in books, old and new, both within and outside a reader's major field of interest.

This month's topic was the findings of a special Commission on National Goals, created by President Eisenhower, and reported to him in the book entitled Goals for Americans.

HEAD OF GRANGE STAYS IN RACE

HARRISBURG (AP)—J. Collins McSparran reaffirmed Friday determination to fight U. S. Rep. William W. Scranton for the Republican nomination for governor. "I think my qualifications are better than Mr. Scranton's," said the 48-year-old master of the Pennsylvania State Grange.

"I intend to thoroughly cover this state in the weeks between now and the primary election, May 15, laying before the people of this state my qualifications and my views on the many serious problems that confront us here in Pennsylvania," he said.

He invited Scranton to appear with him on campaign platforms and before television cameras to debate issues. He said he feels people do not know where the 44-year-old congressman stands on current issues.

MARY
The Mother

"And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary."

—Luke 1:26,27

Mary, the mother of Jesus, was referred to by the Jews as the daughter of Eli; but early Christian writers called her the daughter of Joakim and Anna. She was related by marriage to Elizabeth, the wife of Zacharias, the priest.

The fact that she was already with child when she was married to Joseph made her an object of much ridicule by her contemporaries, who did not believe in her accounts of a visitation from Gabriel, nor of the annunciation that she was to become the virgin mother of the Messiah.

The story connected with the birth of Jesus, the flight into Egypt, and the presentation of her Son at the Temple are all related in full in the Gospels.

Mary's profound thoughtfulness and maternal love are indicated in the New Testament account, which says that "his mother kept all these things in her heart."

Perhaps no mother in history suffered the long travail for her son, as Mary in her deep concern for Jesus, from the night of His birth in Bethlehem to the final tragic night of Golgotha.

Scripture mentions her only four times following the reappearance of Jesus and the beginnings of His ministry after 18 years of absence or silence.

The first is the marriage at Cana in Galilee, at which she was present with her Son. The second was at Jerusalem at the last Passover, observed by Jesus. The third was at the foot of the Cross, when Jesus committed her to the care of John, His beloved disciple with the words, "Woman, behold thy son," and to John, "Behold thy Mother."

Finally, in the days following the Ascension, Mary met with the faithful disciples in the upper room, where they "all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication."

ASK CITY PARKS DESEGREGATION

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Negroes are asking the federal courts to desegregate city parks and recreational facilities in Little Rock, once the scene of violence and bloodshed over school integration.

Wiley Branton, Negro attorney who filed the suit in U.S. District Court Thursday, said he is certain the legal action will succeed. The group of 22 Negroes which filed the suit includes doctors, lawyers, clergymen and political leaders.

The action asks for desegregation of the one swimming pool, all city parks, tennis courts, golf courses and the Municipal Auditorium.

There was no comment on the suit from city officials or segregationist leaders.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Police chased down a stolen car and found it had three drivers.

One small boy was operating the steering wheel and brake pedal. Another had his foot on the accelerator. And the third youngster was the gear shifter. They went to Juvenile Court.

BERLIN (AP)—Two young East Germans caught trying to escape through the Berlin wall have been sentenced to prison terms of 2 years 10 months, a private Western intelligence agency reported today.

GOODMAN TO VISIT RUSSIA

By LEWIS GULICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union, where kings and jazz officially are decadent, soon will have both in a visit by Benny Goodman, "The king of swing."

A two-year cultural exchange agreement signed Thursday by American and Soviet officials will boost by 10 to 15 per cent the number of exchange visits of teachers, technicians, artists, officials, athletes and others between the two countries. An estimated 2,000 exchanges a year were carried out under the 1960-61 agreement.

This will be the first time a Goodman jazz group has played in the Soviet Union.

WERE OPPOSED

Communist negotiators first balked at including the clarinetist in the exchange. Red officials frowned on jazz as a decadent bourgeois product.

But, U.S. negotiators prevailed after pointing out that Goodman has performed with classical music groups in this country and will be able to do the same in the Soviet Union as well as play jazz.

The New York City Ballet and the Robert Shaw Choral are also slated to tour the Soviet Union this year, while the Soviet Union is sending to the United States the Bolshoi Theater Ballet, the Leningrad Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra and the Ukrainian Dance Ensemble.

Both sides hailed the expanded agreement as a step forward in U.S.-Soviet relations, otherwise bogged down in cold war disputes. The negotiations had been under way at the State Department since January.

R.C. SERVES IN EMERGENCIES

Noting that part of the funds to be raised here later this month in the annual Red Cross fund drive will go into the disaster fund of the National Red Cross, Dr. Harry F. Baughman, fund drive chairman for the campaign which will open in Adams County on March 18, called attention today to the disaster relief service being rendered in various parts of the nation.

He cited recent emergency Red Cross work in Kentucky, West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana where 65 of the national Red Cross disaster staff have been assigned to 56 counties in those states. Red Cross disaster headquarters have been opened in Lexington, Ky.

More than 3,500 families affected have been provided shelter and food and thousands have been evacuated from Wayne County, W. Va. The Red Cross has provided shelter, emergency food and clothing for 600 in Corbin, Ky., and have given similar help to many others in nearby areas.

In the wake of this week's storm along the Atlantic Coast, many of the 900 refugees from Ocean City, Md., have been cared for in two Red Cross shelters at the nearby inland town of Berlin, Md. Shelters have been opened in the area of all of the hard hit coastal communities. Dr. Baughman said, and food and clothing have been provided on an emergency basis.

French toast may be fried in deep fat that is heated to 360 degrees.

Ask Approval Of Rail Merger

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania and New York Central Railroads Friday asked the Interstate Commerce Commission to approve merger of the two railroads.

The application, announced here said "three competitively balanced rail systems" are being developed in the East. It said the Chesapeake and Ohio and the Norfolk and Western Railways are creating two such systems, the PRR and NYC the third.

The PRR-NYC application said the merger would mean annual savings before taxes of $75 million, improved service to the public, and a better competitive position with other modes of transportation.

The application said some benefits would accrue promptly upon merger and other savings would be accomplished gradually.

FIDEL CASTRO HEADS LIST OF DIRECTORATE

HAVANA (AP)—Cuba's policy makers put Prime Minister Fidel Castro at the top of a list of 25 persons announced Friday as the directorate for the nation's Integrated Revolutionary Organization. This body, known as the ORI, is considered the cornerstone for the projected new single Cuban political party—the United party of the Socialist Revolution. Raul Castro, the armed forces minister and brother of Fidel, was No. 2 man on the list, followed by the minister of industries, Ernesto Guevara, and President Osvaldo Dorticos.

Until now the national directorate of the ORI had never been announced formally, although key Cuban figures have been referred to as national leaders for several months.

The decision to constitute this Cuban commissariat officially was reached Thursday according to a communique which says the formation "signifies a great step toward the formation of the United party of the Socialist Revolution of Cuba," which eventually will be formed by "the best men and women of the Cuban nation."

Haydee Santamaria, who fought with the rebels in the Sierras, is the only woman in the group of 25.

The announcement appeared under banner headlines in all three morning papers. There was no editorial comment.

MSM Nips Lions In Four Overtimes; Face Hofstra For Regional Cage Title

Mt. St. Mary's College iron-man team advanced to the final of the NCAA small college eastern regional basketball playoffs by outlasting Albright in a thrilling overtime period game 67-64 Friday evening at Reading before 2,250 fans.

Hofstra nipped C. W. Post college's doubleheader and will oppose the Mount tonight in a battle for the right to go to Evansville, Ind., next week to take part with seven other regional champs for the national title.

The score of the Mount-Lions' game was tied at 60-60 going into the fourth extra period. Tommy Pearsall, Albright's ace w/o wound up with 30 points and played a brilliant all-around game, landed a goal after 1:13. Dave Samuels of the Mount converted one of two fouls and then put his team on top for keeps with a goal at 63-62 with 1:43 minutes remaining.

LIONS SET PACE

Albright set the pace through much of the first half, the Mount holding the lead but twice. O'Reilly put the Mountaineers ahead 16-15 after 8:35 and in the final minute of the half successive goals by Talley and Dave Maloney gave the Mount a 34-32 lead at intermission.

The second half was nip and tuck. Mt. St. Mary's led 42-38 after five minutes but then Albright zoomed ahead 46-42. After the Mount pulled to within 46-45, Albright spurred again on goals by Stan Saul and a pair by Pearsall. A long shot by Talley and a foul conversion by O'Reilly tied the count at 55-55.

Neither team scored in the first extra period when both teams played cautiously. Saul opened the second overtime period with a foul for the Lions. O'Reilly followed with a pair of free throws and Pearsall retaliated with a pair of conversions.

CRANDALL AND JONES ANXIOUS TO PLAY BALL

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Toothpick-chomping Sam Jones, trying to grab a pitching berth with Detroit, and Milwaukee catcher Del Crandall, inclined to have a built-in aversion to splinters after sittin' on 'em for almost an entire season, have taken the first steps up baseball's comeback trail.

The 36-year-old Jones, acquired from Houston after the Colts picked him from San Francisco in the National League expansion draft, had been hospitalized for minor neck surgery and made his first mound appearance in more than a week Friday.

LOOKING GOOD
The workhorse right-hander who was a big winner for the Giants but dipped to 8-8 last year with a 4.50 earned run average received a report card that was more than satisfactory after the workout.

"Sam was putting the ball just where he wanted to and he was throwing the way he should," said manager Bob Scheffing. "Those hitters will tell you how much stuff he had. He'll get faster after he's thrown more."

At the Braves camp, Crandall, sidelined during the 1961 campaign after he suffered an inflamed tendon in his shoulder April 20, reported himself 90 to 95 per cent ready after reviewing his performance in Thursday's intrasquad game.

PLAYED 15 GAMES

A 294 hitter with 19 homers and 77 RBI in 1960, Crandall played only 15 games last year, but his showing in the six-inning affair had manager Birdie Tebbetts "delighted and surprised."

Crandall, 32-year-old sparkplug considered by many the top catcher in the National League two years ago, said, "I don't know when I'll be ready but I don't think the day will be far off. I never had so much fun in my life."

Other players turned up with assorted aches and pains—and even the mumps—as the clubs went through their final paces preparatory to opening the exhibition season today.

Zolfo Versalles came down with the mumps at the Minnesota camp and became the second Twins' shortstop lost in two days. Versalles, who will be out of uniform for about 10 days, joins Orlando Martinez on the sidelines. Martinez strained a tendon in his left heel.

NANTICOKE IS SETTING PACE FOR CAGE TITLE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There's a long, long trail awaiting to a state high school basketball championship and defending champion Nanticoke has started down that trail again.

The Nans defeated Scranton Central 69-57 Friday night for the Dist. 2 Class A championship.

They will now play Williamsport, Dist. 4 titlist, Wednesday at Scranton. A victory would leave two more stops on the trail—the eastern regional title game and the state title contest.

In other PIAA Class A action Friday night, Altoona downed Johnstown for the third time this season and won the Dist. 6 Class A crown; Somerset trounced Bedford 77-46 for the Dist. 5 title and Fifth Avenue walloped Allegheny for the Pittsburgh city and class 8 championships.

KUTZTOWN LOSER

Defending champion Darby retained its Dist. 1 Class B title by whipping Nether-Provident 71-60, but Kutztown lost its Dist. 3 Class B crown, bowing 60-44 to Hempfield.

Four Class A games and two class B contests are scheduled tonight. Two of the Class A squads are defending champs—Mount Lebanon and Bethlehem.

Mount Lebanon will meet Uniontown in a Dist. 7 (WPIAL) semifinal at the Pitt Field House and Bethlehem will battle Catawauqua for the Dist. 11 title at the State Farm Show Arena.

Erie Tech and Meadville will tangle for the Dist. 10 crown at Farrell and Punxsutawney and Knoch will battle it out for Dist. 9 honor at Kittanning.

In Class B Purchase Line plays Richland Twp. at Windber for the Dist. 6 championship and Blue Mountain meets Fountain Hill for the Dist. 11 title, also at the Farm Shoe arena.

PHILLIES FACE NEGRO ISSUE

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — Jim Beatty registered his second subfour minute mile of the indoor track season and Hayes Jones bettered the American 60-yard high hurdle record to be the show-stoppers of the 26th annual Chicago Daily News Relays Friday night.

Their outstanding performances, plus an American record-lowering time by the University of Kansas two-mile relay team, drew cheers from a capacity crowd of 15,189 in Chicago Stadium.

Beatty, who became the first indoor mile to break the four-minute barrier last Feb. 10 with 3:58.9 in Los Angeles, took the mile in 3:59.7. On his heels, until he opened up a 12-yard gap to the finish, was 19-year-old Tom O'Hara, Loyola of Chicago sophomore. O'Hara was timed in 4:01.6.

East Germany's Siegfried Heermann ran an indoor mile in 3:59.9 shortly after Beatty's Los Angeles race.

Jones, former Western Michigan star and now a Detroit school teacher, rocketed the high-timers in .069, clipping one-tenth second off his own American mark, which he had shared with Milt Campbell, Campbell, ex-Indiana ace, first set it in 1957.

Kansas overshadowed the relays competition with a blistering 7:30.8. This bettered the accepted two-mile baton record of 7:32.8 set by Manhattan College in 1961.

The Kansas team was made up of Kirk Hagan, who sped the first half mile in 1:52.0; Tonni Coane, Bill Thornton and Bill Dotson, whose anchor leg was 1:51.1.

Pole vaulter John Uelses, who cleared 16 feet 3/4 inch last month, missed on three chances with the bar at 15-4 3/4 and settled for 14-11 3/4. Henry Wadsworth of Army, the national AAU winner last month, won with 15-4 3/4.

"I wanted to go higher but I was taking too long with each jump," said Uelses. "My timing definitely was off and I had trouble with my steps."

CADETS LOSE IN PLAYOFF

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Scotland, a member of the Adams-Franklin Basketball League, dropped a heart-breaking 73-7 decision to Fleetwood in a battle for the District 3 Class C title Friday evening at Hershey.

The Cadets trailed 73-66 with a minute to play and rang up five straight points on a pair of goals by Rick Dubose and a foul by Phil Dubose. Just before the final buzzer sounded Denny Hughes, Cadet substitute, apparently scored the tying goal but Referee John Brunner ruled the shot "out of play" to nullify the goal, saying he had called a traveling penalty against Scotland before the long pass down court to Hughes. The noise from the big crowd had drowned out the sound of the whistle.

REDS AND ACES TIED FOR THIRD

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Providence Reds and the Quebec Aces were deadlocked today in the battle for third place in the eastern division of the American Hockey League.

The Reds, who have been getting stronger as the season progresses, shut out the Cleveland Barons, 2-0, Friday night. The Aces were idle. Both clubs now have 60 points.

The victory was the third straight for the Reds and ran their unbeaten streak to seven games. It also was the first shutout of the season for veteran goalie Gail Mayer.

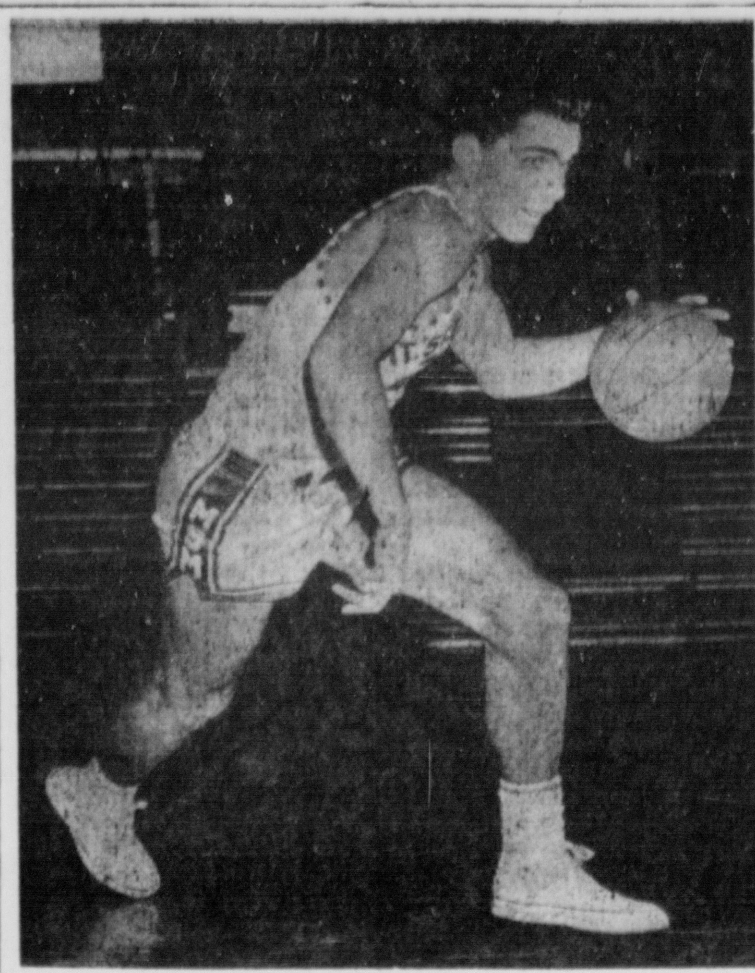

Stan Baluk and Pierre Brilant notched the Reds' two goals. Both came in the first six minutes and 10 seconds of the last period.

BISONS AND LOSERS
In the only other game of the night, the Rochester Americans downed the Buffalo Bisons, 4-3, when Wally Boyer connected at 6:43 of the overtime period.

It was only the second overtime victory of the season for the Amerks. Previously, they had tied six and lost six.

The defeat was a serious one for the Bisons. They are in first place in the western division by a narrow one-point margin over the Cleveland Barons. A victory would have given them a three-point bulge.

The Amerks had a 3-1 lead after two first period goals by Dick Gamble and one by Larry Keenan, but Wayne Hicks sent the game into overtime with two goals in the final period.

Dave Samuels, Mt. St. Mary's College, sank three points in the fourth overtime period to put his team on top as the Mountaineers edged Albright 67-64 Friday night in an eastern regional NCAA small college playoff at Albright College. Samuels, a Senior, finished with 19 points to be high man for the Mount. Tonight the Mountaineers meet Hofstra at Reading for the eastern regional title with a trip to Evansville, Ind., next week for the national tournament as the prize. (Photo by Ramer)

U.S., SWEDISH HOCKEY TEAMS SEEK ICE TITLE

By JACK STEVENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer
COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—The United States faces a crucial test tonight when they meet the big, fast Swedish team in the world hockey championships.

Both clubs have posted impressive victories in their opening games, and the winner is expected to battle Canada's defending champions for the title in their international competition.

"We are sure going to give the Yankees a rough time," declared Sweden's popular veteran Sven Tumba Johansson after his club had warmed up with a 17-2 shelling of Switzerland Friday.

That game saw little rough checking and only one penalty, but Coach Arne Stromberg told newsmen, "We will be ready for hardbody contact against the United States."

After two days of action, only the United States, Sweden and Canada are undefeated in the Class A competition.

The United States team didn't play Friday after whipping Norway 14-2 in the opener Thursday. In today's other Class A game, the Canadians, who beat Finland 8-1 on opening night, go against West Germany at Denver.

UPSET FINLAND

Norway surprised West Germany 6-4 Friday night, and in a match between once-beaten clubs, Britain rallied with four goals in the third period to upset Finland 7-5.

Since Canada doesn't meet Sweden until Tuesday and the United States until the March 11 finale, much of the early interest rests on tonight's game.

"If we can get by Sweden, we should be all right," commented U.S. coach Connie Pleban. He has been worried because his club had only two practice games before the tournament opened.

WILL BATTLE FOR POSITION IN TOURNEYS

By ED CORRIGAN

Associated Press Sports Writer
Only one spot remained to be filled in both the NCAA and National Invitation Basketball tournament today—but it's probably the most important.

When Cincinnati and Bradley meet in a playoff for the Missouri Valley Championship Monday, the winner will head for the NCAA and the loser the NIT.

Cincinnati is the defending NCAA champion, having defeated Ohio State in last year's final. The NCAA is hoping the Bearcats and Buckeyes meet again.

ST. JOE'S IN NCAA
Both St. Joseph's of Philadelphia and Texas Tech gained NCAA spots Friday night. The Hawks won the Middle Atlantic Conference championship by defeating Temple 75-65 in Philadelphia. Texas Tech captured the Southwest Conference crown for the second straight year by outlasting Southern Methodist 71-67 in Fort Worth. Both were playoffs.

The NCAA college division post-season tournament moved into high gear on eight fronts from coast to coast. Defending champion Wittenberg turned back Gannon 69-43 and unbeaten Florida A&M rolled to its 26th straight victory, 74-60 over Youngstown in a doubleheader at Akron, Ohio.

Southern Illinois jumped a round ahead of the rest of the field with an 88-83 triumph over Evansville, to move into the quarter-finals.

OTHER GAMES
Texas Tech will meet the Air Force Academy, an at-large entry, in the first round of the NCAA tournament in Dallas Monday.

Villanova, an at-large NCAA club, defeated La Salle 75-67 in Philadelphia before St. Joseph's and Temple took the floor.

In other major games, Stanford beat UCLA 82-67, Oregon State downed Oregon 65-48, California nipped Southern Calif. 61-60; Washington squeaked by Idaho 55-54, Tulane took Louisiana State 84-69 and Connecticut whipped Colgate 94-78.

SANDERS HAS 3-STROKE LEAD

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Limping but light-hearted Doug Sanders carried a three-stroke lead into today's third round of the $20,000 Pensacola Open Golf Tournament.

Sanders reeled off his second straight 5-under-par round of 67 Friday for a 36-hole total of 134 despite a ride to the hospital to have a glass siver removed from his left foot just before the round began.

The 28-year-old native of Cedar-town, Ga., picked up the siver from a broken astray.

Tournament favorite Arnold Palmer was knotted in a tie for second with five other players — Dave Ragan Jr., Miller Barber, Paul Harney, Bert Weaver and Don Fairfield.

Tied for eight a stroke back at 138 were Moon Mullins, Jerry Steelsmith, Dan Sikes, John Pott, Bobby Nichols and Joe Campbell. The honeymoon ended quickly for the first-day leader, unheralded Peter Mazur of Tonawanda, N.Y. He scored an astonishing 9-under-par 63 on the first round, but skidded to a 78 on the next 18, giving him a halfway mark of 141.

Bullet Trio To Play In Tourney

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three members of this year's Gettysburg College basketball squad are scheduled to take part in the 15th annual Y-HI basketball tournament which opens at Waynesboro on Tuesday.

Ron Warner, Bob Parker and Bruce Simpson, all Seniors, will play for the Collegians which will be managed by Jack Stoops, a former employee at Gettysburg College and now employed in the cafeteria system of the Waynesboro schools.

In the event Mt. St. Mary's is eliminated in the eastern regional small college playoff at Reading tonight, Dick Talley and Dave Samuels, Seniors, will join the squad.

The Andrade camp was sore because Latka stopped the uneven match to save the 32-year-old veteran from further damage. And the Moore people were mad because Latka accused Davey of "carryring" his friendly opponent in the early rounds. Latka needed a police escort on his way to the dressing room.

New Variety Of Red Clover On State Recommended List Says Adams County Agent

By FRANK S. ZETTLER
Adams County Farm Agent

Chesapeake, a new variety of red clover recently released by the Maryland Agricultural Experiment Station, has been added to the recommended list for Pennsylvania.

In numerous trials throughout the State, Chesapeake has produced high and consistent yields, has had good persistence and good seedling vigor, and in general has performed much like Pennsco, currently our most widely grown variety.

Unlike Pennsco, Chesapeake has resistance to southern anthracnose, a disease which can shorten the life of red clover stands in some areas of southeastern Pennsylvania.

IN SHORT SUPPLY

Seed of Chesapeake is expected to be in short supply for 1962 plantings.

Lakeland, another new red clover variety under study at Penn State, is somewhat less vigorous and productive than either Pennsco or Chesapeake and is not recommended for use in the Keystone State.

Because of anticipated short seed supplies of recommended varieties imported red clover seed lots are being sold in some areas. This imported material is generally inferior to domestic seed in total forage yield, aftermath production and persistence. If recommended varieties are not available, well-cleaned, high-quality Pennsylvania grown clover seed or other named varieties such as Kenland, Lakeland or Dillard are preferred to imported seed.

BEES NEED FEED NOW

Bees appear to be in poor condition this late winter. Many colonies have already been lost while others are low on food and probably will die.

Many bees went into winter short on food reserves because of the poor fall honey flow. The open winter caused the bees to consume their stores at a faster than normal rate. These two factors will result in a high loss of colonies.

Early in March bees may be helped by pouring granulated sugar on the inner cover. The bees can make use of the dry sugar if the weather permits occasional flight so that they can obtain moisture.

SUGAR SYRUP

Sugar syrup, made up of two parts sugar to one part water by volume, is used more efficiently by the bees, both to prevent starvation and to stimulate brood rearing.

Best results are observed when the syrup is fed inside the hive. Here's how: Use a 5-pound friction-top pail which has a half dozen small holes in the lid. Use the tip of a 4-penny nail to make the holes. Invert the can over the inner cover, hold and protect it with an extra super or lid.

Include sulfathiazole in the syrup being fed. One pill, or 0.5 grams of sulfa, to each gallon of syrup will help to control American foulbrood in areas where this disease is a problem. Stop sulfa feeding by late April so that all of the drug will be consumed by the bees in brood rearing rather than being stored.

CHECK COLONIES

Check colonies when weather permits flight. Unite weak colonies. Clean out dead colonies and store to prevent mouse damage. Destroy diseased colonies by burning in a pit and covering the ashes.

Several thousand miles of tile drainage lines installed in Pennsylvania since World War II indicate how well farmers are satisfied with this method of draining the wet spots.

Most farmers estimate the increased crop production and convenience of using modern farm machinery will repay the cost of tile drains in 3 to 5 years.

Other drainage benefits are:

1. Lowers the water table and increases the supply of plant food by enlarging the root zone.
2. Soil warms up earlier in the spring. Crops get an earlier "send off" and a longer growing season.
3. Better soil aeration with quicker decomposition of organic matter.
4. Improves the appearance of the farm and increases land value.

A good outlet is necessary for every drainage system. An open sod waterway or surface stream below the level of the field usually makes the best outlet. Do not discharge tile lines into a shallow surface ditch, or on the surface of another field. Occasionally it is necessary to make a suitable outlet channel or clean out an old one.

Metallic pipe is recommended for the last 8 feet of the tile line to prevent damage by freezing. Protect it with a guard to prevent rabbits, rodents, and other small animals from plugging the line. Mark the wet spots this spring so they can be located when the tile ditching machine is available this summer.

FARM HIRING DAYS SLATED

Farmers and farm workers may benefit from seven Farm Hiring Days scheduled during March in Allentown, Chambersburg, Lancaster, and York County under sponsorship of the State Employment Service, according to Ronald K. Baltzley, of the Gettysburg local office of the Employment Service.

Baltzley said that the hiring days would furnish opportunities for farmers and farm workers to meet for hiring interviews. Farmers looking for farm workers but unable to attend any of the days scheduled should phone the Gettysburg local office and give information concerning their farm labor needs.

If the Farm Hiring Days will begin at 1:30 p.m. and end at 4 p.m. There is no fee charged to farmers or farm workers for the service.

Dates and locations follow: Allentown, March 7 and 21 at Lehigh Valley Cooperative, Farmers Building, 1026 N. Seventh St., Allentown; Chambersburg, March 20 and 27 at Chambersburg Municipal Recreation Center, 235 S. Third St., Chambersburg; Lancaster, March 8 and 22 at Farm Bureau Cooperative Auditorium, Harrisburg Pike and Dillerville Rd., Lancaster; and York County, March 14 at Red Lion Grange Hall, Cape Horn, R. 2, Red Lion.

ATHENS, Ga. (AP)—This northeast Georgia city, home of the University of Georgia, has hired two Negro policemen—the first Negroes on the force.

Police Chief E. E. Hardy said Thursday night the two officers will patrol Negro areas of the city.

MANY 4-H CLUB MEMBERS NOT ON FARM NOW

Of the 500 4-H club members in Adams County, only about 300 live on farms and not more than 65 of them will remain on farms for their life work, if national averages apply in Adams County.

That information was handed out today by a group of 4-H club leaders in the county in connection with the observance this week by 4-H clubs throughout the nation of National 4-H Club Week.

The 4-H club program in Adams County is under the supervision of Associate County Agent John Naugle, Assistant County Agent Duane Duncan and Mrs. Helen Tunison, county home economist.

MANY URBAN RESIDENTS

The statement on 4-H club work issued by the leaders today follows:

"Many people feel that to become a 4-H member one has to live on a farm. But what many people don't know is that thousands of 4-H members live in town, and very few who do live on farms will stay there. In fact, of the 2,200,000 members only about six of every 10 4-H'ers these days live on farms. The other four live either in towns or cities or in suburbs.

"As farms become larger, more mechanized and more efficient, fewer farmers are needed, and the opportunities for farm youth to stay in basic agriculture are getting fewer. So today, only about one of every eight 4-H'ers will remain on the farm. For this reason, the 4-H program is set up to interest and benefit the seven other girls and boys, young men and women, leaving the farm, as well as those who will stay and make farming their life work.

"More than twice the number of girls enroll in clothing projects, meal planning and food preparation, as enroll in the next most popular projects, in crops, livestock and the like. Girls also take projects in child care, home management and many others.

"A highly important aim of 4-H is to help young people on farms apply the latest findings of agricultural research in their raising of livestock and growing crops. However, the basic long-range goals everywhere are character development and good citizenship. Projects to help members 'learn by doing,' the club slogan, and to 'make the best better,' the club motto, are mainly means to ends. What really counts is 'growing the boy or girl—who grows the calf.'

MANY RELATED CAREERS

"4-H emphasizes personal development for happy, healthy living. 4-H boys and girls acquire these skills by simple record keeping and the importance of personal and social traits of poise, self-confidence and leadership.

"There are many careers closely related to farming. The businesses, industries and professions that serve agriculture to day include feed manufacturers, farm-equipment dealers and manufacturers, petroleum producers and distributors, dairy industries, food processors, packing companies and many others. All of them need young people with both 4-H and farm experience. These will always be good openings for young people with experience and training as botanists, entomologists, pathologists and plant breeders.

"4-H leaders always encourage, even urge, college educations for club members, and 4-H donor friends in business and industry give hundreds of free scholarships each year."

Repair Sash—It's good business to keep hotbed and cold-frame sash in repair, considering its high price, reminds James O. Dutt, Penn State extension vegetable specialist. This is one of those extra jobs to do in winter.

Stop Winter Slump—Laying hens that have gone down in production during cold weather may come back to normal production if given supplemental vitamin A and D feeding oil. Just give the birds a dose of feeding or cod liver oil in the feed, is the advice of Herbert Jordan, Penn State extension poultry specialist. The local feed dealer or county agent can suggest a recommended mixture.

Beef Performance—A profitable beef herd should approach a 100 per cent calf crop weaned, with calves weighing about 450 to 500 pounds at weaning, says Tom King, Penn State extension livestock specialist.

Kill Rats—One rat will eat about 40 pounds of food each year and will contaminate nearly 100 times this amount, Stanley Gesell, Penn State extension entomologist, urges continual war on the rat pests, and says there are many excellent rate baits on the market. When used properly the baits are effective and safe. Follow directions carefully.

Get Good Seed—In making up your garden seed order include the old standbys along with some promising new varieties, advises Robert Fletcher, Penn State extension vegetable specialist.

Protect Cows—When the March winds blow watch those open doors, broken windows and large cracks in the dairy barn, Joe Taylor, Penn State extension dairy specialist, explains that drafts chill the udders of high-producing cows and mastitis often results.

Play Safe—An electrical wiring system is no better than its poorest part, declares Joseph McCurdy, Penn State extension agricultural engineer. He urges periodic inspections of wiring extensions and the original system by a qualified person.

Make It Easier—Labor is one of the major costs in the poultry enterprise, says Carl Dossin, Penn State extension poultry specialist. That's why he stresses the adoption of methods that permit poultrymen to take care of more birds, do a better job and do it in less time. Save five steps a day and you save a mile a year, he claims.

Wait Awhile—Don't let a few warm days push you into the garden while the soil is too wet to work, warns Lynn Smith, Penn State extension floriculturist. Working wet soil will puddle it and when it dries out it will stay hard all summer.

Save Young Animals—A little extra attention will save baby lambs, pigs and calves born in cold weather, says Dr. Samuel B. Guss, Penn State extension veterinarian.

Mash ripe banana and add it to chocolate milk, beating well. Serve to small fry when they come home from school and want a snack.

When you are removing a quick bread from a loaf pan, run the thin blade of a knife around the edges before inverting on a wire rack.

29 YANKEES HELD BY REDS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Twenty-nine U.S. Army men are listed by the Pentagon as being in the hands of the Communists.

They are among 227 seized by the Communists since 1954, a Senate subcommittee was advised Thursday. The figures were in a letter signed by Cyrus R. Vance, Defense Department counsel.

There was no explanation of when, how or where the military men were captured. Carlisle P. Runge, assistant secretary of defense, who was testifying in an investigation of anti-Communist indoctrination of troops, said he didn't know anything about the details.

The letter said 207 Army personnel had fallen into Communist hands. Twenty-nine are listed as missing, presumed under Sino-Soviet control; and seven have been reported dead, although their bodies have not been returned. The other 171 were returned to the Army.

Twenty Air Force men were captured but all have been released, Vance reported. No Navy men were listed as having been seized by the Communists.

Burma To Seek Foreign Capital

RANGOON, Burma (AP)—Brig. Aung Gyi, No. 2 man in Gen. Ne Win's military government, declared Friday there will be no nationalization of oil or other industries under Burma's week-old regime.

Gyi told a news conference the Revolutionary Council, which took over last Friday after Gen. Win's coup against Premier U Nu, will do its utmost to attract foreign capital by creating the right climate for investment.

He said many grandiose schemes of the former Socialist government would be dropped in favor of more practical projects, such as the American-financed Mandalay-Rangoon highway, which had been allowed to drag.

Gyi also said that a major military campaign was being prepared to wipe out insurgents. Rebels of all kinds—Communists, Karens, Mons, Kachins, Shans—have been terrorizing parts of the countryside for years.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy named an Army career man with broad experience in government Friday to the number two job in the Central Intelligence Agency.

The White House said Maj. Gen. Marshall Sylvester Carter has been selected as CIA deputy director.

This was the second major appointment since John A. McCone took over as CIA director. Last month, Richard M. Helms was chosen to succeed Richard M. Bissell Jr. as deputy director for plans.

EXTREMISTS ASSAILED BY CHURCH UNIT

NEW YORK (AP)—The United Presbyterian Church has urged its 3,250,000 members to avoid extremist tactics and, instead, combat communism by strengthening their love for one another and for the Christian faith.

The exhortation was made Thursday by the 52-member General Council, the top administrative body.

The council drew up a six-page letter on freedom of pulpit and pew, which will be directed to the governing bodies of all congregations of the denomination.

CONCERNED BY CONFUSION

The council assailed right-wing extremists who charge Communist infiltration of churches.

It expressed concern that many loyal members seem to be confused about the rash of false charges against ministers, the church and its leaders, and councils of churches with which the denomination is affiliated.

The statement did not refer to any specific group.

The Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, chief executive officer of the United Presbyterian Church, said in an interview that the council's letter implied strongly that Presbyterians should not become members of the John Birch Society or other extremist groups.

REPORT CAMPAIGNS

Dr. Blake said there have been reports from various parts of the country of telephone and handbill campaigns against Presbyterian ministers and laymen who expressed views in opposition to the beliefs of extreme right-wing leaders.

Dr. Blake said these pressure campaigns are in line with programs listed in the manual of the John Birch Society.

Robert Welch, head of the John Birch Society, has said that three per cent of the Protestant clergy are Communist sympathizers.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has declined with thanks the offer of Rhode Islanders to set up a summer White House at Newport, R.I.

"He did not think there was any need for a summer White House at Newport," Pierre Salinger, press secretary, said Thursday after Kennedy met with Rhode Island's Democratic senators, John O. Pastore and Claiborne Pell.

Rhode Island citizens had offered to buy an estate known as Annadale House to serve as a summer White House. The price tag was $250,000.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—No president, probably, ever worked harder at his homework than President Kennedy, if as hard. An astonishing knowledge of details shows through every news conference.

The fact that he's only 44 must be a big help.

The details cover the world, from describing the attitude of a governor in Brazil to telling a reporter his figure was too high when he said 13,000 men faced unemployment in a Long Island plane plant.

You can criticize him, and often justly, for not fighting more, or not seeming to fight at all, for some of the programs he dumps on Congress in such rapid abundance.

"STIR UP BEES"

You can wish for fewer literary touches in his speeches and more iron and follow-through after he delivers them, even if it means making some people mad at him.

Like President Eisenhower, Kennedy has made a policy of not stirring up the bees, even when some of them sting him.

But he cannot be criticized for not attempting to absorb the fantastically varied doings and problems of government, at home and abroad, in dollars, dimes and percentages, in men, missions, and missiles.

His accumulation of detailed knowledge, which must be acquired through much reading and many conferences, is in addition to the other activities of the presidency, from speeches by day to White House musicales by night.

BETTER THAN MOST

His news conference last Wednesday was an example, better than most, of Kennedy's mastery of the intricacies of his job. It was better than most only because of the nature of the questions which prompted detailed answers.

Here is a rundown on his answers, showing the range of his knowledge, domestic and foreign, plus the evidence of his activity which is sandwiched in between all he seeks to inform himself on.

He had written the steel industry and the steel union to resume negotiations on a new contract by next Wednesday (both sides agreed to) and he had written Premier Khrushchev some suggestions on space cooperation.

2 WOMEN ARE SHOT TO DEATH FRIDAY NIGHT

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—Two women were shot dead in a rooming house here Friday. Police today were questioning a Williamsport man about the shootings.

The bodies of Mable Major, about 61, owner of the rooming house, and Alice Miller, a roomer, were found on the first floor of the double brick dwelling.

Police Chief John C. Good said, "We definitely feel that it is homicide, especially since there was no weapon in the house."

He said the man taken into custody was seen leaving the house. No charge has been filed, Good said. The man's identity was not revealed.

SUSPECT ARSON

The assailant also apparently tried to burn down the house. Good said police discovered the fire and notified firemen who quickly extinguished the blaze. They estimated damage at about $500.

Good said traces of kerosene were found on both floors of the two-story structure. The fire apparently was set in a second floor closet, he said.

Another roomer, Clarence Persun, discovered the two bodies and called a neighbor who notified police, Good said.

He also said there may have been a struggle. The broken lenses of a pair of eyeglasses were found in different parts of the house.

Dr. Early R. Miller said the two women died instantly. A .38 caliber bullet entered Miss Major's left cheek and passed through her brain. Miss Miller was shot over the right eyebrow, he said. A third bullet struck a wall.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Robert F. Woodward is being replaced as secretary of state for inter-American affairs.

The White House said Thursday that President Kennedy intends to put a State Department economics specialist—Edwin M. Martin, assistant secretary of state for economic affairs—in the job.

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, didn't answer directly a question whether Woodward had resigned.

One Of Richest Dies In Madrid

MADRID, Spain (AP) — Juan March, who worked his way up from a stevedore to become one of Europe's richest men, died today.

The 80-year-old financier died in a hospital from injuries suffered in an automobile accident Feb. 25.

March began his life's work on the docks of Palma de Mallorca, and ended it owning many of Spain's largest industries, power companies and banks.

The exact size of March's wealth was a secret he shared only with his bankers. But financial circles said he was among the richest men in Europe.

W. J. Vaughan, Virginia's Civil Defense director, stopped the evacuation when a light rain began to fall, making visibility poor.

Vaughan also said a causeway across Chincoteague Bay to the mainland had been eroded by the storm that sent savage seas and high winds across the island Wednesday.

Houses were smashed like matchboxes. Boats and skiffs littered the streets. Lights blinked out as power failed and telephones went dead. Not a home on the island escaped damage.

Fear of an epidemic prompted the request to evacuate. Dr. William Fritz, county health officer, said the contamination came from hundreds of thousands of dead chickens and the bodies of other animals.

Louis Quinn:

Many Of Many Talents

When visitors to Hollywood drop into Dino's Restaurant hard by the address made famous by Efrem Zimbalist Jr., Roger Smith and Edward Byrnes as "77 Sunset Strip," the only character out of the popular ABC-TV network show they are almost certain to see is Louis Quinn, who is best known to TV audiences as "Roscoe," the race horse handicapper with the checkered vest and a long cigar stuck into his face.

A resident of the Sunset Plaza area overlooking the famous thorhis way into the "77 Sunset Strip" series when he was asked to doctor a script and was summarily recruited to deliver his own gags.

A Chicago-born former Los Angeles newshawker, Louis attended the University of Mexico as a young man. He majored in journalism and worked briefly as a reporter. Gay and uninhibited, he was always known as a formidable foe in any jocular verbal tiff.

"It's the sort of thing kids learn naturally on the street corners," Quinn explains. "I peddled papers

Jersey, Quinn took his Army discharge in the east and immediately went to work as a script writer for Orson Wells' Mercury Theater. It was during the year that he scripted this show that he won his first award. New York radio critics named him "best radio writer in America."

He also won the Paul Whiteman award for a scrip written for the Philco Hall of Fame.

The biggest snowstorm of 1950 in New York projected Louis into radio disc jockey work when the CBS, majority owner of "My Fair Lady," sold motion picture rights to the property to Warner Brothers for $5,500,000 . . . "What's My Line" is now in its 13th year on TV. Dorothy Kilgallen, Bennett Cerf, Arlene Francis, John Daly and the program's producer, Gil Fates, have been with the show from its first year.

man.

"I was never happier. I'm relaxed, and I'm doing what I enjoy doing. I'm not as young as I used to be, and every man has got to begin to simmer down at one point or another," Quinn says.

As Warner Bros.' good will ambassador without portfolio, Quinn has logged over 100,000 miles of air travel to the major cities of the United States and Canada for public appearance engagements. He often accompanies other stars for whom he occasionally writes material and is much sought after as master of ceremonies or after-dinner speaker.

UNREHEARSED PATTERN

His patter is always unrehearsed and usually topical. A master of the ad lib, the late Fred Allen, spoke of Quinn as "the quickest wit I've ever met."

Sample joke: "We make a fastidious couple," Quinn says of his wife and himself. "She's fast and I'm hideous."

As a gag writer for such celebrated comics as Milton Berle, Bert Wheeler and Jimmy Durante, Quinn once earned up to $65,000 a year—"far more than I make as an actor," he jests. "But, then, I never had time to wander down to Dino's and oggle the tourists."

Louis also never had time for his favorite present-day hobby of oil painting at which he has shown such skill that many of his works (principally clowns) now hang in the offices of numerous Warner Bros. officials.

He has also found time in recent months to complete a cook book titled "At Home on the Range."

A conversation with him beside the fireplace at Dino's may get you his recipe for what he calls Laughing Jello: "You use wine instead of water in it. It's guaranteed to produce the happiest guests you ever had to dinner."

Ralph Edwards has made the pilot film for a new series, "Surprise of Your Life," in which NBC and an agency have expressed interest . . . Rita Hayworth, who goes out on dates with Anthony George, nevertheless recently rejected a guest star bid for "Checkmate" . . . An Elvis Presley show is being offered as an hour-long special this season for $400,000 by his manager, Col. Tom Parker . . . Recently the Groucho Marx Show was on directly opposite a "My Three Sons" show written by Groucho's son, Arthur . . . Someone said, "It's easy to make money in TV these days, but it's hard to make a living." . . . Cables for the toll pay-TV system, installed in Bartlesville, Oklahoma, amid much publicity five years ago, are being removed. The owners couldn't make it pay off by charging subscribers a flat $9 monthly fee . . . Danny Thomas is reportedly set to produce a new series with a barbershop locale . . . Gisele MacKenzie is due to give birth to her second baby in April.

Eddy Manson, whose harmonica accompaniment is heard on Mitch Miller's "Sing Along," has been signed to compose and conduct the music for "U. S. No. 1: American Profile," a special upcoming in NBC-TV.

Leslie Uggams, young singer with Mitch Miller and "Sing Along" on NBC-TV Thursday nights, is the first guest to be signed by Andy Williams for his starring special slated for May 4. It will be a reunion for Leslie and Andy who featured her two years ago when he headlined a summer series. The pert Miss Uggams has come a long way since having just walked off with honors as TV's "Female Singer of the Year" in Radio-Television Daily's All-American Awards Poll.

Mel Blanc, the voice of Barney Rubble on "The Flintstones," is now able to get around to recording studios for commercial work after months of recording while in bed after his near-fatal auto accident.

Slim Pickens, an actor whom you see in many TV shows such as "Tall Man" and "Lawman" and in numerous movies, was quite naive when he was offered his first screen test by Warner Brothers.

"What does it cost me?" was his answer.

When he was told, "Nothing," his reply was "Okay, let's do it."

That was in 1950 and he has done about 50 films since.

Louis Quinn, Jacqueline Beer, Efrem Zimbalist Jr. and Edward Byrnes, regulars on ABC-TV's "77 Sunset Strip."

oughfare, Louis says, "I sit on my patio and I can look right down at Dino's and see if business is good."

IS A TEETOTALER

If business seems off or Louis feels restless, he saunters down the hill and perches himself by the fireplace in Dino's. A teetotaler, he will order a lemonade or a glass of ginger ale and, as he puts it, "give the place some atmosphere."

Tourists recognize him readily and are usually amazed by Louis' off-stage wit and lightning-like repartee.

Few persons ever pause to reflect upon the fact that Louis is a man of many talents. He is a skilled master of ceremonies, a disc jockey, a respected TV interviewer, a highly regarded dramatic actor and an outstanding gag and scenario writer who has won many scripting awards.

As a matter of fact, Louis wrote at some of the busiest corners in town. Some fine impromptu jokers pass busy street corners and the newsboy has gotta be on his toes or he'll get laughed right out of business."

NATURAL ABILITY

His natural and acquired ability to turn a funny phrase attracted the attention of Director Bryan Foy, who brought Quinn to Warner Bros. in August, 1940, as a writer.

"In those days," he recalls, "there was one fellow who wrote the story line and another who did the dialogue. I was the dialogue man."

Quinn wrote dialogue for seven major theatrical motion pictures before World War II came along and he was inducted into the Army Signal Corps, where his talents were immediately utilized for the production of training films.

Having been stationed in New regular deejay in the Copacabana night club got into difficulties with the management and Quinn was asked to "take the mike" until a replacement could be sent over from the radio studio.

The weather was so bad the replacement was unable to travel and Quinn was so good he was given a two-year contract.

The pudgy little comedian broke into television conducting an interview show called "Quinn's Corner" on Los Angeles' KHJ-TV, a program he conducted for nearly two years before he returned to Warner Bros. in 1956 to take up where he had left off before the war as a script writer.

STRESSES ONE ROLE

"You're better off if you concentrate all of your efforts in one direction," Quinn declares in answer to the question of why he devotes full time to the characterization of Roscoe, the Sunset Strip handicapper and contact

Bob Mirvish, a writer of sea stories whose latest novel, "Point of Impact," has just been published, suggests that TV writers sail the seven seas the way he has been doing. He asserts it would spur their creative talents. "I don't think there's a better place than the sea to get a complete detachment," observes Mirvish. He also feels that stirring stories about men of the sea would be a good follow-up to the rash of westerns on television.

Shari Lewis gets spotlighted in March and April on two of TV's top-rated programs. Jack Benny will feature her on his March 18 outing and then on April 10 she joins the Garry Moore gang, both on CBS-TV.

Any Questions?

Q. Do contestants who win prizes on quiz shows have to pay taxes on them?—L.U.

A. According to the Internal Revenue Department, they do.

Q. Who is going to succeed Jack Paar on his late show—C.G.

A. We understand that after Jack signs off in March, the show will move to the coast for a few weeks with Art Linkletter, Joey Bishop and others emceeing it. Then it will move back to New York with other stars guesting as emcees until the fall. NBC still hopes to have Johnny Carson as permanent replacement for Jack in the fall.

Q. What ever happened to Jerry Lester?—T.M.

A. Last we heard he was living in California.

Q. Will Steve Allen have a TV series next fall?—J.V.

A. As of now, his future status is unresolved.

BROADCASTING 10 YEARS AGO

Steve Allen's daytime TV show was expanded to a full hour . . . Both Democrats and Republicans were planning heavy use of TV for the presidential campaign . . . Groucho Marx's "You Bet Your Life" was the top audience participation show.
